Is voted the best show on the grounds, because of the new and novel features. Hashash, the whirling dervish, does the sword and torture dance. The Bennett Sisters consist of four up-to-date specialty artists in novelty fancy dances, buck and wing, serpentine and skirt dance, newest songs, among which "Everybody Toss Their Hair to Nell and I," "Beautiful Fairy Tales," and "Isn't It Lovely to Be on the Stage?" seem to be the favorites. BAY STATE IDEAS

Massachusetts Democrats Hold
Their State Convention

FORMULATE PLATFORM

Name Col. W. A. Gaston of Boston for Governor.

Boston, Oct. 1.—In a most harmonious state convention and with an enthusiasm greater than has been displayed in a gathering of the party in Massachusetts in many years the Democrats of this state today nominated their leaders for the campaign of 1902. The sentiment of the convention seemed both in the address of the permanent chairman and in the platform adopted seemed to be a general condemnation of the policy of the opposite party, both with reference to national and state administrations.

The candidates, all of whom were nominated by acclamation, follow:

For governor, Wm. A. Gaston, Boston. Lieutenant governor, Richard Olney, Springfield. Secretary of state, Ezekiel M. Ezekiel, Springfield. Treasurer, Thomas C. Thacher, Yarmouth.

Auditor, Francis Letourneau, South Bridge. Attorney general, John J. Flaherty, Gloucester.

Mr. Bartlett, the chairman, in his speech referred to Gen. Nelson A. Miles as "the foremost American soldier living today, dear to the hearts of our people, idolized by his old comrades."

This was received with applause and cheers which compelled the speaker to pause, and when he resumed the audience remained quiet only long enough to hear the words "has been disappointed, snubbed, belittled and insulted by a crowd of fanatical soldiers and sycophants surrounding the technical head of the army, who was a chance participant in a small fight," when it burst into another tremendous hand clapping and shouts. The platform adopted.

The platform reaffirms the principles of Democracy, declaring that the Democratic party shall oppose the present oligarchy now as we fought the political oligarchy with Jefferson.

It denounces the trusts as "monopolies made by law, entrenched behind a prohibitive tariff, buttressed by subsidies and special rates, plundering our people with the one hand, while with the other they reach for conquest and sell their product cheap abroad that they may sell it dear at home."

It continues: "We despise that hypocrisy which outdoes Populism in placing the treasury money at the service of favored banks and breaks laws to favor Wall street speculators. We favor immediate regulation of trusts under the interstate commerce and taxation powers of congress and the admission free of duty of articles controlled by the trusts on raw materials of manufacture and the necessities of life."

Article III. We condemn the campaign of conquest and subjugation. We demand that Cuba be treated as promised. We demand that the Philippines be treated like Cuba.

IX. Reciprocity with Canada, long the hope of Massachusetts, must soon be achieved or abandoned forever.

V. We hold that the principles of civil service reform should not be deserted by an official, however high, or for a political expediency, however great. United States senators should be elected by the people and not by legislators packed or corrupted.

It further demands state and national legislation in behalf of labor; condemn the abuse by some federal courts of the high writ of injunction; favors tribunals for arbitrary arbitration in labor disputes with power to enforce their decrees; condemns lynchings everywhere; and favors an "early declaration of our purpose in the Philippines and opposes the repeal of the 14th or 15th amendment."

Col. W. A. Gaston of Boston was chosen for governor by acclamation. Richard Olney Second, of Lowell, was nominated for lieutenant governor also by acclamation.

THE BAY STATE REPUBLICANS.

Delegates in Large Numbers Are Arriving in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 1.—Several hundred Republicans, delegates to the state convention to be held at Tremont Temple tomorrow, attended a reception to Governor John L. Bates and his official family at the American house tonight. Senator Root, who will renounce the governor tomorrow, was unable to be present, but Secretary of the Navy Moody, who will perform the same service for Lieutenant Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., stood in line with the executive.

The gathering tonight was more like a business convention than a political conference. The platform which will be offered tomorrow was gone over carefully and approved.

The nominations for the remainder of the ticket will be merely renamings of the present incumbents, there being no contests of any sort.

THREE BROTHERS EXECUTED.

Sit in Electric Chair for the Crime of Murder.

Danvers, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Cloudy skies and a drizzling rain darkened the cell room at the awakening of the three Van Wormer brothers to their last day on earth. The condemned men did not sleep last night until nearly 2 o'clock this morning, but tossed uneasily upon their cots.

Dr. Ransom, the prison physician, visited the condemned men in their cells this morning.

BUCHANAN CONFIDENT.

Thinks His Election as President is Certain.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 1.—Frank Buchanan's re-election as president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers is assured, according to his friends tonight, who lay positive claim to 8 out of the 35 votes in the annual convention now in session here. Not until this morning did President Buchanan make known his determination to run for re-election, and then it was stated that he had done so only after he had secured the support of the iron workers and after his supporters had insisted that he could win out. Tonight, after he had succeeded in getting the convention today to endorse without opposition the bill of expenses presented on behalf of Robert Neidig, the proposed head of Local No. 2 of New York, and to order his own personal expenses paid, President Buchanan expressed confidence in his final victory over the Parks crowd. Previously Samuel Parks had openly declared that he would fight against granting this money. Today he voted with the rest of the delegates to support the president's claim. "I am no knacker," he declared, and the New York walking delegate made an effort to fight the bill. Tonight Mr. Parks refused to give any figures but reasserted his claim that P. J. Donnelly of Albany would be named for president. "I have said from the start that he would be elected, and you can count upon our doing so."

The election probably will take place tomorrow.

Late this afternoon the convention set for all time the affiliation of the late workers with the International association by voting that the inside workers shall retain their charter.

This is considered a victory for the element headed by Delegate W. C. French of San Francisco. French came to the convention a Buchanan supporter and was appointed a candidate for the presidency to succeed Buchanan, but tonight he announced that he would not allow his name to go before the convention and that he will support Donnelly for president. French went over to the Parks faction soon after the convention met. Buchanan and Donnelly will probably be the only men whose names will be placed in nomination for president.

EDITORIALS IN EVIDENCE.

Time of Court Is Taken Up in Reading Newspapers.

Lexington, S. C., Oct. 1.—The fourth day of the trial of James H. Tillman, charged with the murder of Editor Gordon, was taken up almost wholly with the reading of editorials from the State newspaper, also of which covering 1902 were placed in evidence by counsel for the state. It was not anticipated when the reading was begun that one-half the time would be consumed that was taken, and even yet there remain about two columns to be read in the morning. It is estimated that some thirty columns were read today. The papers from which the editorials were read run from the last of April to the end of the year 1902. The reading was a tedious task. Twice during the day Judge Gary suspended court momentarily because of the strain on the jurors, who listened intently throughout.
